Important Account Information

Good news - When we modified the options to avoid the monthly service fee on your Everyday Checking account last year, we placed a temporary monthly service fee walver on your account to help with the change. As a courtesy, we are extending this temporary fee walver for an additional three consecutive fee periods. If you have converted or choose to convert this Everyday Checking account to another checking account type at any time during the temporary monthly service fee waiver period, the waiver will not be applied to that new converted account. The terms of that new account, including the applicable monthly service fee and options to avoid the fee, will apply at the time of conversion.

When your temporary monthly service fee waiver has reached the final two fee periods, there will be a message on your account statement under the Monthly Service Fee Summary section that will let you know it is coming to an end. When the temporary fee waiver expires, you'll need to meet one of the existing options to avoid the monthly service fee. The options to avoid the monthly service fee can be found on this statement under the Monthly Service Fee Summary section.

Thank you for being a valuable customer. If you have questions, please contact your local banker or call the number listed on this statement.

We are updating the Deposit Account Agreement ("Agreement") dated May 28, 2021. Effective August 9, 2021, in the section of the Agreement titled "Closing Accounts," the subsection "Closing your account if the balance is zero" is deleted and replaced with the following:

Accounts with a zero balance will continue to be charged applicable fees your account. We may close an account (except analyzed business accounts) with a zero balance on the fee period ending date or at month end without prior notification to you. Once an account is closed (either by you or us), no fees will be assessed on the account.

- To prevent closure by us, an account with a zero balance must have a qualifying transaction posted within the last two months of the most recent fee period ending date. IOLTA and RETA accounts require a qualifying transaction within ten months of the most recent fee period ending date.
- Examples of qualifying transactions are deposits and withdrawals made at a branch, ATM, online, mobile, or via telephone; one-time and recurring transfers made at a branch, ATM, online, mobile, or via telephone; automatic or electronic deposits, such as from payroll or government benefits; automatic or electronic payments, including Bill Pay; one-time and recurring purchases or payments made using a card or mobile device; and checks paid from the account. IOLTA and RETA accounts are not eligible for ATM cards or debit cards.
- Bank-originated transactions, like monthly service or other fees, are not considered qualifying transactions that will prevent closure of an account with a zero balance.

All other aspects of the Agreement remain the same. If there is a conflict between the updated language above and the Agreement, the updated language will control. The most recent Deposit Account Agreement and related addenda are located online at wellsfargo.com/online-banking/consumer-account-fees.
